Tamara Gómez Carrero, University of Valladolid

Alicia Brown

Hispanic Linguistics, University of Arizona

Alicia is a second-year PhD student in Hispanic Linguistics at the University of Arizona. Her research interests center on the sociolinguistics of bilingual communities.

Tamara Gómez Carrero

University of Valladolid

Tamara Gómez Carrero is a fourth-year PhD student from the University of Valladolid and part of the research group UVALAL. Her research interests focus on code-switching; specially she investigates how grammatical gender is processed by English-Spanish sequential and simultaneous bilinguals by using eye-tracking data.
